

Variety of MP3 music sorting variants in new Music Organizer Pro version

Sunday, 08 April 2007

Variety of MP3 music sorting variants in new Music Organizer Pro version

In the new, 4.68 version of Music Organizer Pro appended new wizard step - "Music Renaming" ("Music Organizing"). It has number 5 and gives the ability to specify, how processed music files will be renamed and in which folder, according to their content, they will be moved.

At the this moment, there are 6 most popular variants of renaming are presented for one-click selection and even it is not all - everybody, who want something special, can easily define custom music moving/renaming mechanism. Number of variants is infinite - in file name and path may be included every of hundreds of music files attributes, in any order and amount. Even very exacting user will find variant for himself.

Last product version may be purchased in our online store. All registered Music Organizer Pro users can get it for free.